

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

DECISION AND ORDER

22-CR-6185DGL

v.

SHYMERE WASHINGTON,

Defendant.

Defendant Shymere Washington moves by counsel (the Federal Public Defender) for a sentence reduction pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(2). The motion is based on an amendment to the United States Sentencing Guidelines (U.S.S.G.) § 4A1.1(d), effective November 1, 2023, which results in a lower guideline range for the defendant.

Furthermore, the Sentencing Commission voted to apply the amendment retroactively, see U.S.S.G. § 1B1.10. The effective date though of the retroactivity amendment is February 1, 2024.

Defendant's motion was filed on December 11, 2023 (Dkt. #37). The United States Probation Office filed a Supplemental Presentence Report on January 8, 2024 (Dkt. #39). The Government filed its Opposition to the motion on February 12, 2024 (Dkt. #41) and the defendant filed a Reply to the Government's Opposition on March 11, 2024 (Dkt. #44).

The statute and caselaw directs that the Court must first determine whether a defendant is eligible for a sentence modification. Both defendant and the Government agree that defendant is eligible.

The Court must determine the guideline range that would have been applicable had the relevant amendment been in effect. Generally, U.S.S.G. § 1B1.10(b)(2) limits the extent of the reduction and the Court may not reduce the term to less than the minimum of the amended guideline range. The other important requirement is that the Court must consider any applicable sentencing factor under 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a) and determine whether, in its discretion, the reduction is warranted on the particular circumstances of the case.

I am familiar with this defendant, his conviction, and prior sentence. I have reviewed all of the matters submitted and carefully considered the sentencing factors under 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a).

CONCLUSION

I hereby GRANT defendant's motion (Dkt. #37) for a sentence reduction to a term of 33 months imprisonment. All terms of Supervised Release, including Special Conditions remain the same.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
